“Lifelines, Connecting Nature’s Habitat” - Talk by Pamela Callender

About our SPEAKER:

Pamela Callender
has lived in Florida since 1972.

With a varied career in art and teaching, she designs home landscapes, micro forests and living walls with Florida native plants.

She works at Sweet Bay Native Plant Nursery in Parrish.

“Plant natives and the birds/butterflies will come”

Join us for our October meeting! “Lifelines, Connecting Nature’s Habitat” & Pot Luck Luncheon afterwards

Wednesday October 15

*Have you ever thought of your yard
as a piece of artwork?*

Pamela Callender will introduce us to Eco Art, and show ideas of new landscapes using Florida native plants, with sample plans.

She will also present garden myths - which explain differences between Florida and other parts of the country.
