“Petticoat Painters” in Person

Petticoat
PAINTERS

About Jana Millstone

Jana Millstone's dream-like imagery propels you into worlds that can sometimes be funny, calming or disquieting, but are always thought provoking. She believes art making is a weird mix of play, alchemy, terror, and transcendence.

Don't miss this winter retreat into the aura of art!

Join us for our 1st 2026 meeting!

We are in for a treat as we welcome one of the oldest continuously exhibiting women's art groups in the US, The Petticoat Painters, formed in 1953 to showcase the talents of female artists.

The five artists appearing in person are:
Jana Millstone, Keiko Romerstein, Susie Covert, Alicia Brown and Nancy Hielscher.

- Alicia, Nancy and Jana will speak to the influence of nature and botanical elements in their work.
- Keiko and Susie meanwhile will be working on their art projects during the presentation by way of demonstration, and both groups will welcome any questions we may have during and following the presentation.

9:30am start

- 9:30 – Refreshments & Socializing
- 10 to 10:30am – Members' Business Meeting
- 10:30 to 11:30am – Presentation and Q&A
 - @ 12 o'clock - Close

Special thank you to the Hospitality Committee for providing refreshments
